

2024 JUBILEE: A Celebration of Freedom

JURIED ART EXHIBITION CALL FOR ENTRIES

DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES: MAY 10, 2024, 11:59pm

Exhibition Dates: June 13-16, 2024

Exhibition Venue: Neiman Marcus, The Galleria

OVERVIEW:

The D.R.E.A.M Affect Foundation's mission is raising awareness of the underrepresentation of art students of color and assisting emerging artists. Keeping in step with our mission, The D.R.E.A.M. Affect Foundation will donate a portion of all art sales to scholarships. These scholarships will allow artists to have the opportunity to broaden their skills and education and reform the underrepresentation of minorities in the fine arts.

Jubilee: A Celebration of Freedom.

The concept of freedom has been a fundamental aspect of human existence since the beginning of time. It is a complex and multifaceted idea that has inspired countless artists throughout history. An art exhibition representing the meaning of freedom is an opportunity to explore the many different ways in which this concept can be expressed and interpreted. Artists from across the United States are invited to submit their work to the juried art exhibition in response to the theme of Freedom.

THEME:

Jubilee: A Celebration of Freedom will feature a diverse range of works that explore freedom in all of its forms. Submit your work for an art exhibition that celebrates and conveys all facets of freedom; from political and social freedom to artistic and creative freedom.

ACCEPTED WORK

1. The Foundation will only accept works that are ready for hanging or installation as suitable for final presentation. Drawings and photography must be framed under plexiglass or glass and wired for hanging.
2. Due to the limitations of the exhibition space, artwork must be 2 dimensional and 36" or smaller and weigh less than 30 lbs.
3. If works are accepted, shipping instructions and delivery instructions will be in the acceptance letter. Each artist is responsible for meeting the shipping deadline. Anyone not in compliance will be ineligible for submission the following year.
4. The artist is responsible for the cost of creating, round trip shipping, and ensuring accepted artwork during arrival to and from venue location.
5. It is strongly recommended that shipped works be sent in prepaid durable shipping boxes suitable for return. All shipped works must be paid for round trip return through the shipper.
6. DAF will take a total of 30% commission from the sale of artwork in the exhibit, so please price artwork accordingly.
7. Only works that are accepted will be shown. If a work is accepted and then becomes unavailable, the artist may not submit any other work in its place and will forfeit the entry fee.
8. The DREAM Affect Foundation will oversee all sales of accepted artwork, with artist's payments to be distributed upon the exhibition's closing within 30 days.
